Original artist: Elvis Presley

Elvis Presley is one of the most celebrated musicians of the 20th century, successful in many genres, including Pop, Blues and Gospel; he is the best-selling solo artist in the history of recorded music. In 1956 he made his first film: "Love Me Tender"; he went on to appear in a total of 33 feature films (31 scripted roles, plus two concert performance documentaries). Nominated for 14 Grammys, he won three and received the Grammy Lifetime Achievement Award at age 36; as an entertainer, he has been inducted into multiple music halls of fame. His televised return to the stage in 1968, led to an extended Las Vegas concert residency and a string of highly profitable tours.

The intention on this recording was to retain the original "Bo Diddley" style of presentation, as far as was possible, in a Square Dance format. We achieved this by taking as much as we could from the original (listen to the rolling piano, both on our track and on the original). The end result was a fast-moving style that really works well as a Square Dance tune - although Callers will need to work a little harder on this track. It is an uplifting tune - with fun lyrics - that will prove popular to dancers of all ages!

Additional Lyrics:

A very old friend came by today
'cause he was telling everyone in town
About the love that he just found
And marie's the name of his latest flame

He talked and talked and I heard him say
That she had the longest blackest hair
The prettiest green eyes anywhere
And marie's the name of his latest flame

Though I smiled the tears inside were a-burning
I wished him luck and then he said goodbye
He was gone but still his words kept returning
What else was there for me to do but cry

Would you believe that yesterday
This girl was in my arms and swore to me
She'd be mine eternally
And marie's the name of his latest flame

Where, When and Who produced the music:

This was part of the fifteenth group of releases that were recorded in Nashville, during March 2012. A total of fifteen songs were recorded during this session, which was the tenth to be arranged and produced by Paul Bristow, with the help and assistance of his younger daughter - Cherish.

As in previous years, the music features the top musicians in Nashville: Gregg Galbraith – as band leader playing all Lead Guitars, Doug Jernigan on Steel and Dobro, Roger Morris on Piano and Keyboards, Fiddle by Rob Hojacos, David Smith on Bass Guitar, Bruce Watkins playing Rhythm Guitar and Banjo, Mike Schrimpf on Harmonica and Jerry Kroon on Drums. As always Kevin McManus was the engineer.

Sting Productions Ambassador Club:

This was the second session to have been underwritten by the members of the Sting Productions Ambassador Club; a group of Callers who worked together to choose the tunes and who contributed, financially, to the costs of producing and distributing the music.
