This tune is from the musical My Fair Lady, which was the brainchild of A.J. Lerner (lyrics) and F. Loewe (music); the musical is based upon George Bernard Shaw's Stage Play: Pygmalion. The musical's 1956 Broadway production was a smash hit, setting a new record for the longest run of any major musical theatre production in history. It was followed by a hit London production. An Oscar-winning film version was made in 1964 and there have been numerous revivals of the musical production.

Once again we decided to retain as much as possible of the original style of presentation. Creating a full orchestral sound, in a Nashville studio, requires a lot of additional work (for the players) - but they are always happy to "rise" to meet the challenge! I am pleased to say that we did manage to get a really good end result, capturing a great deal of the original feel of the original "Show-Tune"; this recording works really well as a Square Dance tune - and will, undoubtedly, prove popular to dancers of all ages!

Additional Lyrics:

I have often walked down this street before;
But the pavement always stayed beneath my feet before.
All at once am I Several stories high.
Knowing I'm on the street where you live

And oh! The towering feeling
Just to know somehow you are near.
The overpowering feeling
That any second you may suddenly appear!

Are there lilac trees in the heart of town?
Can you hear a lark in any other part of town?
Does enchantment pour Out of ev'ry door?
No, it's just on the street where you live!

People stop and stare. They don't bother me.
For there's no where else on earth that I would rather be.
Let the time go by, I won't care if I
Can be here on the street where you live.

Where, When and Who produced the music:

This was part of the fifteenth group of releases that were recorded in Nashville, during March 2012. A total of fifteen songs were recorded during this session, which was the tenth to be arranged and produced by Paul Bristow, with the help and assistance of his younger daughter - Cherish.

As in previous years, the music features the top musicians in Nashville: Gregg Galbraith – as band leader playing all Lead Guitars, Doug Jernigan on Steel and Dobro, Roger Morris on Piano and Keyboards, Fiddle by Rob Hojacos, David Smith on Bass Guitar, Bruce Watkins playing Rhythm Guitar and Jerry Kroon on Drums. Kevin McManus was the engineer.

Sting Productions Ambassador Club:

This was the third session to have been underwritten by the members of the Sting Productions Ambassador Club; a group of Callers who worked together to choose the tunes and who contributed, financially, to the costs of producing and distributing the music.
